

1 Teachers' Professional Experience Sharing

The objective of teachers' professional experience sharing was to provide teachers a deeper understanding the situation of Non-Chinese Speaking (NCS) students' learning through sharing their classwork and experience. In the previous sharing by NCS college students, teachers gained insights into offering more suitable assistance for NCS students to equip themselves with better cultural understanding and enhance language proficiency, in order to motivate them in planning their further studies and career development.